Course information

Course title: Introduction To Using Skype

Course duration: 2 hours

Course format:

One to one tuition only. This can be in the comfort of your own home or at your place of work. We can bring a laptop with the appropriate software on it. Alternatively you may visit us at our comfortable and spacious training rooms.

By the end of this course you will be able to:

- Identify the hardware and software you need to set up and use Skype*
- Send and receive Skype telephone calls
- Conduct calls with more than two participants
- Send and receive Skype video calls
- Send a message using Skype
- Search for and add names to your list of contacts
- Amend your personal profile

(*We can recommend a technician if you don't wish to set up Skype yourself)

Course pre-requisite:

Familiarity with the Windows operating system and at least one other program (e.g. Microsoft Word) would be helpful. This course is not suitable for absolute beginners.

During the course:

You will get plenty of 'hands on' practice and can request help from your tutor at any time. The class is small, friendly and informal. Class size will be a maximum of five people.

About your course tutors:

Ms Shem Heather Allanson, BSc, MLPI. Shem teaches a wide range of business and vocational computer courses for all ages and skill levels; and has done so for many years. Prior to this she worked within medical teaching and then in IT management. Shem was nominated for the Isle of Man Newspaper award for 'exceptional customer service' in 2006.

Mrs Diane Brown, MA, BA (Hons), has a strong background in business, teaching and training. She was a finalist in the Institute of IT Training's "Trainer of the Year 2011" award. She has worked for many years as a full-time senior lecturer at the Isle of Man College teaching business administration and Microsoft Office for business purposes.

Course price: Please see website www.act.co.im for current price list. Discounts may be available for larger groups.

Payment: Course fees are due on the first day of the course for group sessions. For one to one training you can pay as you go. Please see the website for terms and conditions and cancellation policy.

Bespoke courses: We are happy to adjust course contents where practical to suit your exact requirements. Please telephone us to discuss.

How to find us: We are easy to find and have ample parking. We will send you detailed directions at the time of booking.

For the first session: Please arrive in good time and bring suitable glasses if you need them. For all courses, except the beginners' course, we ask you to bring an empty 1GB USB stick. We also request that all mobile phones be switched off during training sessions. We will provide you with a drink during your training – we have a good selection of tea, coffee and fruit teas.

Following your training: You can e-mail, (or Skype) your tutor for further advice or help should you need it.
